Introducing AL WUNDER

An Amazing opportunity to work with world-class improviser Al Wunder from Theatre of the Ordinary in Melbourne over a year-long period. This is the first time Al has presented a year-long programme out of his home country.

Theatre of the Ordinary offers workshops in improvised movement theatre, a simple yet profound means of developing both the creative and formative sides of ourselves.

This year Al Wunder will present 4 public weekend workshops. These workshops will coincide with the year-long group sessions and performances where Al will entertain, inspire and delight with his wit, skill and pure talent. The year-lings will also have chances for public performance alongside Al throughout the year.

- “Al’s clarity of the improvisational process has enabled me to learn an exciting art, the expansion of presence, creating and sculpting moments has opened up so much life energy for me” - Wah
- “This was a nice balm which was very uplifting....Delicious to be here” – Ananda
- “ Really good for my analytical skills, my observational and listening skills. I felt like I learnt a lot from watching and listening to others working and talking” - Rachel
- “Inspiring and supportive.... It has allowed me to regain and explore my creative side. I like what is becoming of me!” – Poorva
- “I’ve finally found a way of working that resonates with me. Opening a door into my creativity, playfulness and the art of allowing!” - Siri
